

Time	Session	Moderator
9am	Welcome and Acknowledgment of Country	Professor Veronica Taylor, CoP Co-convenor
9:15am	Plenary Session 1: Capacity Development in Law and Justice: Getting to Politically Savvy Programming Speaker: Graham Teskey, Principal Global Lead, Governance, Abt Associates Discussion 10-10:30am, with comments from Daniel Kark, Policy Officer, Governance, DFAT What are the limitations with conventional approaches to capacity development? Why, despite these limitations, do we continue to see a heavy focus on conventional capacity development in law and justice programming? How can we move to more politically savvy programming approaches?	Dr Lisa Denney, CoP Co-convenor
10:30am	Morning Tea
11:00am	Plenary Session 2: Anti-Corruption – Think Locally, Act Globally Panel: Professor AJ Brown, Griffith University and Transparency International Associate Professor Kath Hall, ANU Professor Adam Graycar, Flinders University Dr Grant Walton, ANU	Luke Arnold, CoP Co-convenor

Time	Session	Moderator
12:45pm	Lunch
1:30pm	Parallel Breakout Sessions
	Session A: International Police Building	Commander Amanda Kates, Australian Federal Police
	Speakers: Associate Professor Sinclair Dinnen, ANU Wayne Buchhorn, Assistant Commissioner, Project Operations, AFP Tony Murney, former Chief Technical Advisor, Police Professionalisation, United Nations
	Session B: Violence Against Women	Dr Lisa Denney, CoP Convener
	Rebecca Christensen, Senior Advocate, Office of the Director of Public Prosecutions ACT
	How can Australian experiences and expertise on violence against women and children be brought to bear in international contexts? What challenges does this pose? How can these challenges be overcome?
2:45pm	Afternoon Tea

Time	Session	Moderator
3:00pm	Plenary Session 3: Monitoring and Evaluation Speakers: Dave Quayle, Coordinator Strategy Development and Training, AFP Helen Corrigan, Senior Program Manager Vanuatu Australia Policing and Justice Program Representative from the Australian Attorney-General's Department (TBC)	Professor Veronica Taylor, CoP Co-convenor
4:30pm	Session close – forward planning for 2018 This is the fifth CoP event (following the inaugural workshop, transnational crime event, violence against women event, Rachel Kleinfeld seminar). How are we going so far? Are Community members comfortable with the format and regularity of events? What could be improved? Is the size and composition of the Community appropriate? Is expansion or consolidation necessary? What topics would the Community like to address in 2018? Suggestions include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ The Codification and Creation of Community-Level By-Laws in the Pacific and beyond: Opportunities and Challenges ○ Law and Justice, Development Cooperation and Australia's new Foreign Policy Whitepaper: What do they have to do with each other? ○ Playing the Long Game: Strengthening Law and Justice Institutions to Counter Violent Extremism in the Indo-Pacific Is there interest in an event in Indonesia next year?	Luke Arnold, CoP Co-convenor